

THE HERALD.

LYCURGUS BARRETT, LOCAL EDITOR.

WEDNESDAY, SEPT. 30, 1879.

The Herald, having more than double the circulation in Ohio county over any paper published anywhere, it is by far the best Advertising Medium through which to reach the people of Ohio county. Business men should make a note of this.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

N. J. Harris, of Louisville, is a candidate for Sergeant-at-Arms of the next Senate of Kentucky.

—Fun ahead.

—Dog fight yesterday.

—Have your picture taken.

—50 visiting cards for 50 cents.

—Chew Jackson's Sweet Navy Tobacco.

—Visiting cards neatly printed at this shelling.

—For fresh Alderney Butter call on Mrs. F. P. Morgan.

—Picture gallery in Hartford. J. F. Hardman Artist.

—Mr. Jessie Potter has had a new tin roof put on his house.

—50 visiting cards and card case for one dollar at this office.

—No dull time this Fair—thirteen days, during Fair week.

If you want any painting or lettering done Walsh can fix you up.

—Novelties in visiting cards just received at this office. Call and see them.

—G. W. Lanham, son of George H. Lanham, living near Blochhorn, died last Friday night of measles.

—Stuttering cured by Banc's Appliances. Send for description to Simpson & Co., Box 2236, New York.

—Prepare for fun—a first-class theatrical troupe will be here during Fair week to entertain the people.

—Mr. Billy Phillips is having his old store house on Main street, torn down. Mr. J. F. Yager is bossing the job.

—Messrs. Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro. have had the front of their drug store painted and a very large and attractive sign painted thereon.

—Have your house insured, for something is going to happen—nearly every one dreams of the fire. Don't delay, for it may be too late.

—John P. Foster, Beaver Dam, has some Berkshire pigs 21 months old that weigh 55 pounds each. Can Blue Grass beat that?

—The Ohio County Fair will begin September 30, 1879, instead of October 5, as heretofore announced, and will continue five days.

SAM R. COX, Pres.

—The HERALD corps are under obligations to Messrs. Z. Wayne Griffin & Bro. for a "set up" of their favorite Havana "Tip Top." They are delighted.

—Mr. Jas. F. Carson has contributed to our cabinet of wonders, an ear of corn with nine well-developed ears of smaller size attached—giving it an umbrella shape.

—Tom Lee, the negro that created such an excitement in the western portion of town last week, is at himself again. As the physicians have failed to name his case, we will call it a nigger fit.

—Mrs. James A. Harrison, near Sulphur Springs sent us a beet recently that is quite hard to beat. It is the second largest one we have seen this season. Trot out your big beets but don't send us any "dead beats."

—Corinne, little daughter of Capt. Sam. K. Cox, was taken very suddenly Sunday evening with spasm. The fond parents watched it with hope and fear for several hours not knowing what would be the result. We are glad to announce that she is much better this morning.

—An opening for an enterprising man has presented itself. We need a City Hall. Mr. Billy Phillips is demolishing his old brick store on Main street. One could buy this lot and the one adjoining it cheap, and erect a Hall—which would not only be an advantage to the town, but will bring money to him. Try it! Nothing risked nothing made.

—Our sanctum was made bright yesterday morning by the smiling countenance of Mr. Thos. Duke, with a pint of good old sorghum in his hand. Said sorghum was sent us by Mr. Henry Mukiff, and was made on Mr. Sylvester Lunn's new evaporator. This syrup is said to be of the Golden Drip quality, and is as good as we ever tasted.

—Taken up as an offering, by J. C. May, living near New Bethel church on the left or south of the Harmond's ferry road, in Ohio county, Ky., one dark bay horse, some 14 hands high. He is four years old, with a star in his forehead and white stripe under the foot of the left hind foot. Appraised by the undersigned, at $25, this Aug. 6, 1879. A. B. BENNETT, J. P. O. C.

—I take this method of informing the tax-payers of Ohio county that their taxes are now due, and have been since the first of June. Those owing their taxes are herein notified to come forward and pay the same. Persons owing back taxes, if not paid immediately, will have their property levied on and sold. One of my deputies will be at each of the Magistrate's courts in September, where persons can have an opportunity to pay their taxes.

C. W. PHILLIPS,
Sheriff of Ohio County.

—L. E. Woerner, having employed the services of a competent workman to assist him, is prepared to fill orders for boots and shoes on short notice. Give him your custom.

Monday was quite a rainy day which was quite a damper to those attending County Court and stock sales. "Therein was so constant that but little stock or property was disposed of.

Read the new time-table of the Owensboro & Nashville R. R. in this issue. The time-table took effect September 1st. The mail and express will also be carried on this road from that date.

The season is now approaching when people should wear heavy boots and shoes. Taking this as a fact they should leave their orders with L. E. Woerner, where they will be filled with satisfaction both in price and fit.

The Carlisle Mercury says that a letter with a Germantown postmark was received at the Carlisle office on Monday morning addressed as follows:

"Stop me at a rolling mill,
Toledo, Kentucky State.
Drop me there and let me be.
Tell the little Walker cats for me."

The Sandusky House, Owensboro Junction, one of the best arranged, best managed hotels we know of. Every thing is kept in apple-pie order. The House is well furnished from cellar to garret and is kept as nice and bright as a new pin. The table is lavishly supplied with all the good edibles to be had in the market. Try this House when you pass this way.
